

OES PURCHASE ORDER — TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Unless this Purchase Order expressly provides otherwise, it is limited to the terms and conditions set forth herein. OES hereby objects to any additional or different terms and conditions proposed by Seller in any proposal, quotation, acknowledgment, or other document. Any such proposed terms and conditions shall be void and the terms and conditions herein shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of the terms and conditions of the contract between the parties. When used in this Purchase Order, the term "Goods" means the items, materials, equipment, tooling, parts and/or work or services supplied pursuant to this Purchase Order.

1. ACCEPTANCE AND MODIFICATIONS. This Purchase Order ("Order") whether or not issued with reference to a quotation or proposal of Seller, shall constitute an offer. Acceptance by Seller is expressly limited to the terms and conditions hereof and is evidenced by commencement of performance. No changes or modifications in this Order shall be valid unless confirmed in writing by OES.
2. PACKING AND TRANSPORTATION. No charge for packing or transportation will be allowed except as provided for in this Order.
3. SHIPMENT/DELIVERY Seller shall ship/deliver Goods in accordance with instructions and specifications set forth in this Order. If Goods are not shipped/delivered in accordance with OES's instructions and specifications, Seller shall be responsible for any additional costs incurred by OES as a result of Seller's failure to comply with such instructions and/or specifications.
4. EXTRAS. CHANGE ORDERS. DELAYS. OES will not accept any modifications or substitutions, unless it authorizes them in writing before delivery and performance. Seller waives all claims for additional compensation due to alleged changes or extras, unless, before starting any changes or extras, it receives written authorization from OES. Seller waives all claims for additional compensation due to acts or omissions by OES or anyone else, unless it gives OES notice in writing within thirty (30) days. Seller waives all claims for additional compensation due to delays by OES or any other cause and agrees to accept only an extension of time equal to the time lost, as determined by OES.
5. PAYMENT. Unless otherwise stated in this Order, invoices for Goods shall be paid net 30 days from the date of receipt of the invoice or receipt of the Goods, whichever is later ("Payment Due Date").
6. EXCESS GOODS. Except for customary quantity variations recognized by trade practice, goods in excess of those specified in the Order will not be accepted, and such Goods will be held at Seller's risk. OES shall have no obligation to keep or preserve any excess Goods delivered by Seller. OES may, and at Seller's request shall, return the excess Goods at Seller's risk, and all transportation charges, both to and from the original destination, shall be paid by Seller.
7. FABRICATION AND MATERIAL COMMITMENTS. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by OES, Seller shall not make commitments for materials or fabricate or assemble in advance of time reasonably necessary to comply with the terms of this Order.
8. TERMINATION. OES may terminate this Order for its convenience, in whole or in part, by written or electronic notice at any time. If this Order is terminated for convenience, any claim of Seller shall be settled based on reasonable costs incurred by Seller in the performance of this Order for labor and materials which are not usable by Seller for other goods it manufactures. Materials for which Seller is reimbursed shall become the property of OES and be surrendered to it upon OES's request. Seller shall safeguard and shall not destroy such materials without OES' consent.

9. DELAYS. If Seller fails or refuses to proceed with this Order, or if Seller fails to make timely delivery, OES may cancel the then remaining balance of this Order unless the delay is an "excusable delay" as hereinafter defined. An "excusable delay" shall not constitute a default under this Order. The term "excusable delay" as used in this section means any delay in making deliveries which results without fault or negligence on the part of the Seller and which is due to causes beyond its control including, without limitation, acts of God or of irresistible force, any legal provision or order issued by Government or any other act of Government, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, unusually severe weather, and delays of a party's supplier due to such causes. For greater certainty, "excusable delay" does not include any strike, lock-out, labor dispute or inability to obtain labor, utilities, services or raw materials. Seller shall promptly notify OES of any such delay and the cause thereof.

10. INSPECTION AND ACCEPTANCE. OES, at its option, may inspect and/or test the Goods at Seller's plant, off site, and/or the point of destination. OES shall have the right to monitor Seller's inspection, quality and reliability procedures and review the data supporting same. Acceptance of the Goods by OES shall not relieve Seller from any of its obligations and warranties hereunder. In no event shall payment or transfer of title constitute acceptance of the Goods.

11. QUALITY AND WARRANTY. Seller expressly warrants that all Goods covered by this Order will conform to the standards, specifications, drawings, samples, models, 3-D geometry or other description furnished or expressly adopted by OES, and will be of good material and workmanship, and free from defects, including defect in design (if Seller's design) and, if custom-designed by Seller for the application specified by OES, be comparable in quality to similar custom-designed goods sold for similar applications, and if the Goods are not ordered to OES's specifications, Seller further warrants that they will be of merchantable quality and fit and sufficient for the purpose intended. Seller further warrants that all Goods covered by this Order, including but not limited to components and material furnished for or incorporated into the Goods, including Goods intended for distribution as service parts, will comply with all applicable Federal, State, Provincial and local statutes, laws, regulations, orders, and ordinance`s, including, without limitation, all environmental and occupational health and safety laws and industry standards and OES's specifications that restrict or prohibit certain chemical compounds as constituents of Goods. Seller also warrants that its processes shall comply with all current industry safety standards, including labeling requirements and adequate warnings as required.

12. DEFECTIVE GOODS. If any of the Goods fail to meet the warranties contained in Section 11 (a "Nonconformity"), Seller shall, upon notice from OES, promptly correct or replace those Goods at Seller's expense. If Seller shall fail to adequately address the Nonconformity, then Seller shall reimburse OES for all costs to correct or replace the Nonconformity in the Goods. If Seller fails to do so, OES may cancel this Order as to all such Goods, and in addition, may cancel the then remaining balance of this Order. After notice to Seller, all such Goods will be held at Seller's risk. OES may, and at Seller's direction shall, return such Goods to Seller at Seller's risk, and all transportation charges, both to and from the original destination, shall be paid by Seller. Any payment for such Goods shall be refunded by Seller unless Seller promptly corrects or replaces the same at its expense. If any field problem occurs as a result of a Nonconformity in the Goods and is sufficiently serious and widespread to threaten OES's marketing of its end product or OES's reputation, or poses a previously unforeseen safety hazard or causes any governmental agency, including, without limitation, a governmental consumer product safety agency or Federal Agency of Consumer's Protection or the United States Consumer Products Safety Commission, to require a change in OES's end product, such that a recall or Product Improvement Program (a "PIP") is a reasonable corrective action, Seller shall pay forthwith to OES all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by OES in taking such corrective action. If the corrective action is necessary in part because of a Nonconformity in the Goods provided, and in part because of an act or omission of OES, said costs and expenses shall be allocated between the parties pro rata according to their respective percentage of fault.

13. MANUFACTURING CHANGES. Seller shall give OES not less than sixty (60) days prior, written notice of any specification, design, part number or other identification changes, or any major changes in process or procedure or changes in the location of the manufacturing plant or place where Seller performs any of its obligations under this Order if any such changes may affect the Goods.

14. INDEMNIFICATION. Seller shall protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify OES its subsidiaries, affiliates, authorized dealers and distributors and their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, assigns, and customers, from and against any and all claims, suits, allegations, judgments, actions, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and expenses (the "Loss") arising out of, resulting from, related to or associated with: a.) injury, loss or damage of any nature or kind claimed by a third party, and caused by or arising from, or alleged to have been caused by or arising from, or existing because of, infringement or alleged infringement, of any patent or copyright, or wrongful use of third-party trade secrets or proprietary information, for or on account of the manufacture, sale, offer for sale, or use of any Goods; b.) Seller's negligence, strict liability or other claim involving the design, manufacture, material and/or workmanship of the Goods or the warnings or lack thereof; c.) Seller's breach of this Order; or d.) Seller's possession, use, repair or maintenance of the Property under Section 17. If the use or sale of any Goods furnished hereunder is enjoined as a result of Seller's infringement or wrongful use of third party intellectual property, proprietary information, or trade secrets, Seller shall, at its option and at no expense to OES, shall obtain for the party to be indemnified (including OES's customers, if applicable) the right to use and/or sell the Goods or substitute equivalent Goods and extend this indemnity thereto.

15. INDEMNIFICATION PROCEDURE. Failure of OES to discover and/or remedy the act(s) or omission(s) in Section 14 shall not excuse Seller from this obligation. OES shall promptly notify Seller in writing of the Loss. OES shall cooperate in, but not be responsible for the investigation and defense of the action in respect of the Loss or for any costs and expenses associated therewith. Should Seller fail to assume its obligation hereunder, OES shall have the right, but not the obligation, to defend itself and to thereafter require Seller to reimburse and indemnify OES for any and all costs and expenses, including legal fees, paid by OES in connection therewith. Any insurance maintained by Seller as required by the terms of this Order shall in no way be interpreted as relieving Seller of any responsibility under this section. Sections 14 and 15 shall survive termination, cancellation or expiration of this Order.
